Paying Your Rent

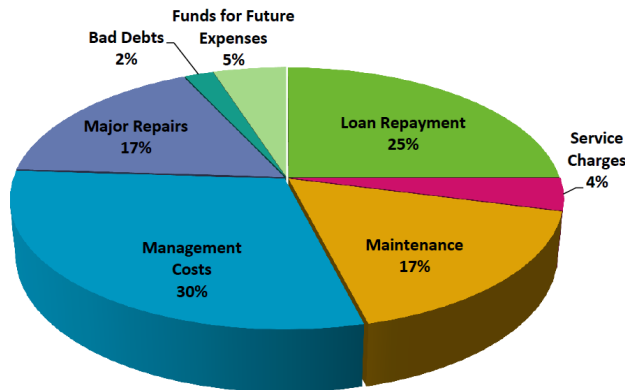

Your home matters

Paying Your Rent

As a tenant of Langstane Housing Association, it is your responsibility to ensure your rent is paid on time.

By paying your rent you are ensuring that you will continue to have a place to live with Langstane Housing Association. Rents also provide the money which is required to provide a wide range of services.

The diagram below shows what every pound of the rent provides:

How to pay

The Association accepts a variety of payment methods to allow you to pay your rent in a way convenient to you. If you wish to discuss the best way for you to pay rent, please contact us on 01224 423000.

Payment choices are as follows:

- Payment by cash, cheque or credit/debit card at either our Aberdeen or Elgin offices, or posting your payment to us. Our office addresses are on the back of this leaflet.

Please do not post cash to us.

- By telephone, using your credit/debit card. Contact our Aberdeen office on 01224 423000.

- Using your Allpay Card at any outlet which accepts this payment. This includes any Post Office and lost local convenience stores displaying the Allpay sign. There is no additional cost to you for paying this way.

- By Direct Debit on a weekly, fortnightly, 4 weekly or monthly basis.

- The Association also offers free benefit checks to all tenants with our tenant welfare advisor who is available for an appointment including home visits.

Contact 01224 423000 for more information.

Claiming Benefit

You may also be entitled to claim of Housing Benefit or Universal Credit to help you pay your rent. It remains the responsibility of the tenant to apply for this benefit and to make sure that the full rent is paid on time, regardless of the benefit entitlements. See overleaf for telephone numbers for your Housing Benefit Office.

What if you have difficulty paying your rent?

Sometimes you may find paying rent difficult. This can be due to a variety of factors including:

- Becoming unemployed
- Drop in wages
- Bereavement
- Disability
- Relationship breakdown
- Illness
- Change in benefits

Do not ignore this; we can offer you advice. Please call 01224 423000 and ask for assistance.

Tenancy Sustainment

We can assist you with a range of services:

- Income maximisation advice
- Sign posting to support agencies
- Energy efficiency advice
- Ethnic minority assistance

Please call 01224 423165 or email: wecanhelp@langstane-ha.co.uk. Your rent is your priority bill payment. By paying your rent you continue to have a home to live in.
