

PRESS RELEASE – for immediate release

05 July 2023

Mandy Macarthur joins Langstane Housing Association as director of finance and corporate services.

Langstane Housing Association is delighted to welcome Mandy Macarthur as the new director of finance and corporate services. Mandy's role will see her lead the finance, governance and corporate, people and culture and ICT teams.

Mandy will play a crucial role in driving the organisation forward and supporting its mission to provide homes and services that make a positive difference to people's lives.

Mandy said "I am excited to have joined the team at Langstane. My priority will be to understand and address the variety of challenges facing our tenants and the sector as a whole. My range of experience will provide a modern approach, in keeping with Langstane's mission, vision and values."

The new appointment comes as the previous director of finance and corporate services, Lynne Macfarlan, departs the Association to begin retirement. Over her time at Langstane, Lynne has made significant contributions to the organisation earning widespread respect from colleagues and the governing body.

"We are delighted that Mandy is joining the team as she brings a wide range of experience with her" said Helen Gauld, chief executive at Langstane Housing Association. "My sincere thanks also go to our valued colleague, Lynne Macfarlan, who has served Langstane with skill and commitment over the past 4 years".
